

OREGON FRINGE FESTIVAL

2024 Schedule

Each spring, the Oregon Center for the Arts at Southern Oregon University produces the Oregon Fringe Festival, a multi-day event celebrating bold, innovative, and outrageous creativity in the arts. The festival is first and foremost a crossroads for emerging artists and professional practitioners to engage with each other's creative work. Our roster includes music, theatre, visual art, film, physical theatre, dance, circus, spoken word, and more, as well as panels and workshops for students and the greater community. Now in its eleventh year, the Oregon Fringe Festival is aligned with the rich history of The Fringe, an international movement exploring our innate creative spirit.

In development for state of the art Fringe collaborations

In collaboration with the Schneider Museum of Art:
Rebellion by Deborah Oropallo and Andy Rappaport

REBELLION (2021) depicts portraits of protestors from global demonstrations at sites from Hong Kong and Myanmar to Venezuela and Turkey. Viewers see protestors in colorful and even cartoonish masks and costumes that reference popular films about counterculture (such as The Hunger Games) as well as historical references to resistance figures such as Guy Fawkes.

In collaboration with the Schneider Museum of Art:
Visiting Artist Maria de Los Angeles

Maria de Los Angeles (b. 1988, Mexico) is an interdisciplinary artist who addresses ideas of migration, belonging, and identity through her drawing, painting, printmaking, and wearable sculptures.

She will be holding a talk discussing her work on Friday, April 26.

In collaboration with
The Sculpture/4D Collective +
The SOU Honors College +
The Oregon Center for the Arts:
Suzy Two & Three

A student artist-run space in the abandoned dorm rooms in Susanne Holmes Hall that invites our larger community to experience the installations, and to see the transformation that had happened on this otherwise forgotten floor. For Oregon Fringe Festival 2024 there are 20 new and returning artists that will be creating artworks throughout the two floors of Suzy!
